- Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999

3. When Lone Working May Occur

4. Safeguards for Lone Working

- Staff check in with a Designated Safeguarding Lead before and after any lone community-based session
- One-to-one tuition sessions are held in visible or partially open areas wherever possible, in line with our Staff Code of Conduct
- Staff carry a mobile phone and emergency contact details at all times when working alone
- Staff check in with a Designated Safeguarding Lead by phone or text message at the start and end of any lone session, with an agreed escalation point if contact is not made within 30 minutes of the expected check-in time

5. Risk Assessment

Lone working scenarios are covered in our Risk Assessment document and reviewed whenever a new lone-working activity is introduced.

6. Roles & Responsibilities

The Co-Directors are responsible for ensuring no member of staff works alone with a young person in circumstances that increase risk unnecessarily, and for maintaining the check-in process.
